

Let's Make a Plan

If violence or assault happens in our space, we will:

If someone is accused of perpetrating abuse and comes to a show we host, we will:

If someone who hosts shows with us enacts violence or abuse against someone else, we will:

Additional plans, policies, and protocols for addressing abuse and assault in our space:

Other considerations:

How do I make space for conversations about violence at shows and events?

How do I center folks who have survived violence at shows?

How do I talk about oppression, assault, and violence on stage (or other platforms available to me)?
